Dear Tex:

Many, many thanks for your list. It is most helpful as many of those on it are Amnesty International adoptees. For your information, those adopted by U.S. groups are: Nestor Manuel FANTINI AYBAR and Guillermo Martin VILLALOBOS.

I was surprised not to see the name of Susana Pioli. Has her mother been in touch with you? She is adopted by a group in Palo Alto, California and is one of the Azul 9, arrested along with Olga Talamante.

Would it be a terrible imposition to ask you to keep us current with the applications? We are trying to avoid duplicating applications to other countries and have forwarded your information to London to try to accomplish this.

I enclose the names of the USA adoptees so that you will know of our interest should their applications come into the embassy.

Please give my best to Ambassador Castro and tell Max Chaplain that I have recently been in touch with his sister-in-law, Ginger Harmon, who is most interested in helping out with cases in Argentina. Keep up the good work. It is most appreciated from this end.

All best,

Wendy

P.S. Could you please clarify something for me? Are all the names on this list detainees who have applied for Right of Option? Have you received applications from any who have been freed? or who have never been imprisoned but have real fear of persecution? What are you doing about refugees (ie Chileans)/
